

Résumé – Rocio Popplewell

Chosen quote: “Ladran Sancho, señal que cabalgamos”

Let the dogs bark Sancho, it is a sign that we’re moving forward.

- attributed to Cervantes

Nutshell: Rocio has studied and worked in both the civil law world and the common law world. She has professional experience spanning government as well as the private sector (including a global advisory firm) and is vigilant about arriving swiftly at optimal outcomes for clients.

Education LLB, Pontifical Catholic University of Peru
LLB (pending), University of New England
Masters (Diplomacy and International Relations), Diplomatic School of Madrid

Bright spots:

- Working with a prominent not-for-profit organisation to establish a comprehensive constitutional and regulatory framework
- Working with Peruvian enterprise seeking to do business in Australia and Australian enterprise seeking to do business in Peru following upon the conclusion of the Peru-Australia Free Trade Agreement (PAFTA)
- Working with a global advisory firm on IT service agreements and scopes of work
- Working with Spanish speakers in navigating the Australian legal system.

Links: Web: <https://neolaw.com.au/>

LinkedIn: <https://au.linkedin.com/in/rocio-popplewell-2585a5265>